

Today at our Midweek/Midday Prayer time we will be praying for our surrounding community of Las Colinas/ Irving/ Valley Ranch, Coppell, Lewisville, Flower Mound, Carrollton, Farmers Branch, and Dallas. The prayer guide has some ways to invite you to pray, and this is designed to provide even more specific ways to pray.

Immigrant neighbor communities - for our outreach to these communities so they know there is a caring community around them that they can draw on.

Many Helping Hands - pray for our homeless friends who need a wide variety of services from identification cards, health care, meals and low cost housing.

Irving Cares - pray for their funding in this season of unrest where government funding is not secure.

Mid-Cities Women's Clinic - pray for the families who come to their door with crisis pregnancies, pray for their fundraising efforts to build a new clinic in Haslet area, expanding their reach and coverage in areas where there are no other services like theirs.

Family Promise - pray for them as they implement their new care model that more families would consider their program and get the help they need to get on their feet and find appropriate housing for their families.

Dallas Life- For Dan Sullivan and the staff there to care for the homeless of our city and meet their physical and spiritual needs.
